

Copenhagen

Probably the friendliest capital in the world, Copenhagen is a lively, cosmopolitan city, with a cosy, relaxed atmosphere. Colourful shopping streets offers the best of Danish design. There are excellent museums, art galleries and restaurants, while Nyhavn's pavement cafés, or the magical Tivoli Gardens are perfect for long summer evenings.

There are City Tours by coach or canal-boat, and excursion possibilities include Hamlet's Castle at Helsingør, the Viking Ship Museum at Roskilde, and Odense the birthplace of Hans Christian Andersen.
